MANY ENTRIES FOR BOAT RACES

Now York, September 3.—One hundred and twenty-three entries have been received by the officers of the Hudson River Yacht Racing Association, composed of twelve yacht and boat clubs, for its annual regatta, to be held to-morrow. The first race is to start at 16 o'clock n the morning. The program includes four contests for sailing craft of the one design class. The speed boats entered include Peter Pan IV., the Traver, the Gunfire, Jr., and the New Elmer II. The courses are to be patrolled by the revenue cutters Manhattan and Guide. A feature of the day's sport will be the Ellicott cup race. This is an interclub contest, each club being entitled to enter one boat.

'Aima. Where De You Live?" a musical play, which had an entire season's run at Weber's Theatre, New York, is to be seen at the Academy to-day latinee, to-night and to-morrow night. From a French farce, which had been translated into German and first produced in New York 'n that language, and which had been generally criticized for its broadness. George V. Hebart, at the instigation of Joseph M. Weber, constructed a play which tells a very pretty story and transforms a very naughty heroine into a very charming creature, whom even the most captious of playgoers will not hesitate to applaud. Aside from Mr. Hobart's work in creating an agreeable libretto, an excellent
